COUNTRY CAT OF SAUK CENTER NAMED MINNESOTA'S 2015 SNOWMOBILE DEALER OF THE YEAR

The Minnesota United Snowmobilers Association (MnUSA) is proud to announce the recipient of the 2015 Snowmobile Dealer of the Year Award is Country Cat of Sauk Centre owned by Dave and Mark Wanderscheid.

Country Cat's owners have been long-time supporters and advocates of the sport of snowmobiling. They support motorized recreation issues, promote local and state club memberships as well as being sponsors, supporters and participants in many snowmobile events such as the Rum River and Haydays swap meets, Sno-Cross at Buffalo River, and Oval Racing at Alexandria. They also support snowmobiling through their sponsorship and distribution of trail maps and other literature. Their motto "We take pride in going the extra mile to ensure that our customers are satisfied," shows in the friendship they offer, the demo rides and after-purchase contacts and follow-up to their customers,

John Olmscheid, a Region 3 Director of MnUSA says, "Country Cat is a strong member and supports us and all of the snowmobile clubs in the whole five or ten counties around them." He also commended them for their support through maps and being involved in fundraisers, land-owners suppers and other activities.

In addition to local involvement, the Minnesota Highway Safety and Research Center commended them for their continued and outstanding support of the Emergency Vehicle Operators Snowmobile and ATV Training Programs.

Country Cat's comprehensive and ongoing involvement and support is fueled by their highly evident passion for the sport. Their passion, support and involvement in the sport are the primary reasons that Country Cat is the 2015 snowmobile dealer of the year.
